CALL FOR PAPERS

LAITECH2024 STUDENT CONFERENCE – TALLINN

FEBRUARY 29 – MARCH 1, 2024

The TalTech Law School is inviting submissions for its third Student Conference on The Law, Ethics, and Policies of AI, and Future Technologies. You are cordially invited to send abstracts or proposals for presentations and posters to participate in LAITech2024.

The conference will take place on February 29 and March 1, 2024, in Tallinn, Estonia. It will bring together local and international students and professionals. The participants will find opportunities to present new research ideas, exchange information about innovative methods, and discuss issues at the top of the global regulatory agenda. Although we focus on legal and policy developments related to AI and future technologies, interdisciplinary proposals – theoretical or empirical – are highly encouraged. The conference will be a hybrid event to allow participants to present online and in-person.

ABSTRACT/PAPER SUBMISSION

- Authors are requested to submit proposals no later than December 6, 2023. The submission should consist of an abstract of no more than 400 words of length, in a word file named as follows:
  - abstract.LAITech2024.Surname.doc;
  - researchppresentation.LAITech2024.Surname.doc; or,
  - poster.LAITech.Surname.doc
- The proposal should outline the components of the research (i.e. research problem, research purpose, main arguments or hypotheses, research question)
- The participants will receive helpful feedback with the notification of acceptance to guide and encourage them to improve their work for the final submission.
- All submitted conference papers will be blind peer reviewed by competent reviewers. A number of selected high-impact full-text papers will also be considered for the opportunity to be published.
- The proposals should be directed to the ilsataltech@gmail.com with a "LAITech2024 submission" subject indication.
